girl scouts of central illinois

Girl Scouts of Central Illinois Nominee Information

Jennifer Boyer

1st 2-Year Term, Board of Directors

Jennifer Boyer, formally with Springfield Clinic, brings more than 25 years of healthcare leadership experience. She has led large-scale strategic and financial initiatives, strengthened operational performance, and guided organizational growth across a multi-specialty physician practice service patients throughout Illinois.

A lifelong Girl Scout, Jennifer credits the organization with shaping her confidence and leadership skills. She is committed to ensuring girls across Central Illinois have access to opportunities that foster courage, character, and independence. Jennifer holds an MBA in Healthcare Administration and a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. She resides in Cantrall, Illinois.

Samantha Patrick

1st 2-Year Term, Board of Directors

Samantha Patrick is the Vice President of Mortgage Operations at INB, N.A., where she leads strategic initiatives focused on operational excellence, technology integration, and team development. With more than 20 years of progressive leadership experience in community banking, she is passionate about building strong, collaborative teams and driving continuous improvement. Samantha is deeply committed to youth empowerment and community engagement and is honored to support the Mission of Girl Scouts of Central Illinois.

Mark Rossi, JD

1st 2-Year Term, Board of Directors

Mark Rossi is a private attorney who resides in Morton, Illinois and works at McGrath Law Offices, P.C. Mark has been a licensed attorney for over 30 years and concentrates his practice in advising municipalities, small business, estate planning, and real estate. He served as President and Chief Operating Officer of the not-for-profit Hopedale Medical Complex in Hopedale, Illinois from 2000 through 2019, where he spent much of his time advising staff in risk management and human resources matters. Mark has previously served as a board member of Kickapoo Council of Girl Scouts and is looking forward to assisting the GSCI Board in its worthy charitable mission.

Non-Voting Girl Board Members – One-Year Term

Lily Heidrick, Bloomington

Alivia Hopkins, Pleasant Plains

Bailey Myers, Hanna City