

2019 Girl Scout
Sunday/Sabbath
Sunday, March 10
Saturday, March 16

Girl Scouts are united by a belief in God.

Building leadership experiences for girls for more than 100 years.

Since its founding in 1912, Girl Scouts has enjoyed the support of religious organizations. Together we have enriched the spiritual lives of Girl Scout members, each of whom strives from the perspective of their own personal belief to live up to the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

Many religious organizations develop and administer religious award programs especially for Girl Scouts. Because of this powerful partnership, Girl Scouts have become stronger members of their own faith, and girls from every faith have felt welcome in Girl Scouting.

All girls who participate in a worship service during Girl Scout week can receive a FREE fun patch.

Please go to www.getyourgirlpower.org to order your fun patch. Deadline to order is Sunday, March 31, 2019.

Share your pictures and stories with us on the Girl Scouts of Central Illinois facebook page using the hashtag #GirlScoutSunday.

“The motivating force in Girl Scouting is spiritual.”

— Preamble, Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA

Girl Scout Mission

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place.

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Promoting strong values, leadership and community service are key components of Girl Scouting. Girls can join a troop or register independently to follow their desired path. A church-sponsored troop would be the perfect opportunity for girls to earn their religious award; encouraging them to grow strong in their faith. Girl Scouts offers a valuable program for our girls, so we need caring adults like you to lead and mentor.

The Girl Scout My Promise, My Faith pin invites Girl Scouts to experience a faith journey through exploration of the Girl Scout Law and teachings from their faith. Girls can earn this GSUSA sponsored pin each year. More information is available in the Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting.

Some Catholic diocese have religious awards and ceremonies specific to their region, be sure to check with your diocese for more information! Additional religious award programs created by 29 individual religious group are available through Pray Pub. These award programs provide opportunities for girls to reinforce and internalize the values they have learned in Girl Scouts. P.R.A.Y. awards are available for independent Christian churches. Log onto www.praypub.org/gsusa for more information.
